

Solidarity Immersion: Student Human Rights Trip in the Dominican Republic!

August 3rd-17th 2016

Meet the inspiring leaders of Alta gracia, the first ever living-wage union-made factory producing college logo apparel. Come see for yourself how more than a decade of student-worker solidarity continues to transform the Free Trade Zone and community of Villa Altigracia!

Hear direct testimonies from organizers in the factories and fields, from garment-industry to Call Centers to agriculture in the Dominican Republic and Haiti.

Meet students from all over, feed your creativity, fine-tune your organizing skills and have time to develop your game plans in an inspiring new setting. Build alliances with a network of amazing students from campuses across the country who are fighting for change, just like you!

Immerse yourself in the local culture with home-stays and hang-out time with families in villa Altigracia! Beaches! Rainforest Rivers! Hikes in the hills of villa Altigracia! Learn to appreciate Dominican music and dance - Bachata, Merengue, Dembow - with union leaders! Bilingual Karaoke! Learn to cook delicious Dominican food! Art! Action!

Cost: $975 covers all on-island expenses! Need-based scholarships and fundraising support available!
